PRAYER REQUESTS

FROM THE VOICE OF THE MARTYRS: The total number of Eritrean Christians arrested since the beginning of May has now risen to more than 160. According to ministry partners, 12 children have been imprisoned with their parents. Since then, many more arrests have been confirmed; all those imprisoned for their faith are released only if they promise not to engage in unlicensed religious activities and to renounce their allegiance to Christ. Those who refuse to sign can be held for years, even decades. We ask for your prayers on behalf of our oppressed brothers and sisters in Christ in Eritrea. May they continue to remain faithful and will explicitly place their trust in the One whose love and promises are never failing (psalm 33:1)

AMAZING GRACE COMMUNITY CHURCH: Give thanks for God's provision of the building dedicated this morning to the Lord's work and pray for ongoing blessing as the church is able to use the building for their new ministry and worship home.
