CONGREGATIONAL NEWS/MATTERS FOR PRAYER

CROOKS FAMILY: Please be in prayer for Pastor Ian, Rhoda and the rest of the Crooks family as they mourn the loss of Ian's mother. Pray for safe travels for Ian as he returns home today after attending her funeral on Friday. Pray for Rhoda who was unable to travel with him due to her ongoing recovery from knee surgery. Pray for continued comfort and strength for them moving forward.

WESTERN CANADA PRESBYTERY PRAYER ITEMS:

1. GraceFinder: As we start semester soon, pray for planning and outreach as we give out care packages with Gospel of Luke - open hearts and words seasoned with grace.
2. Special prayer item from the Pacific Northwest Presbytery: TE Andrew (wife, Amy) Allen (Kenai, AK) has been church planting in Kenai (Soldotna) Alaska, for the past two years. He was diagnosed with state 4 lung cancer early this year. It has spread throughout his body and the chemotherapy used for this type of cancer, though initially showed promising results, has now lost its effectiveness. Andrew has been a trooper ministering to his small congregation, Redeemer Church, but has become very weak and unable to do so. Please pray for faith and strength for this dear couple and this church. Please pray that the Lord would provide good pastoral care for Andrew and his congregation as they endure this trial.
3. The Smed's and Bottomley's are preparing for a trip to Cuba. October 2-18. They will be working with leaders in three cities of the house church moment. They will spend half their time on prayer evangelism including prayer walks and going out to meet and talk with people and will spend the other half the time on training trainers which is the ultimate goal of going there.
