"May the favour of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us - yes, establish the work of our hands."

Psalms 90:17

Celebrating God's Faithfulness

Today I bring to you something a bit different... Today marks my 30th birthday! As I enter a new decade, I wanted to share with you some thoughts I have about the past, the present, and the future. It would be easy to resonate on the struggles in my life, but today I want to talk about God's faithfulness.

Since high school, God has taken me on an incredible journey to Dordt College, to Abbotsford BC and a job at the City of Abbotsford, and then to my present job at GAIN. I am so thankful for each of these experiences and the learning that each one brings. I am so thankful for each and every one of YOU, and your role in my life. THANK YOU :) Ultimately, I am so thankful that I can see God's fingerprint and handiwork in it all.

Specifically now, God has opened my eyes to the work that he is doing around the world... in Syria, in Paraguay, in Benin, and so many other places. I love catching glimpses of God's bigger picture, and am excited to continue to be a part of it. With that, I look forward to the next 30 years, and the adventures that I know God has in store!

So maybe you are not entering a new decade today, but I would like to leave you with a challenge. I encourage you to take a moment and think about your story, and how God's handiwork can be seen woven throughout it all. Feel free to share with me if you would like!
